

EXCITING NEWS!

Encore Fasteners is now...

... Innovating Legendary Products

We recently acquired Hartco from Stanley Black & Decker, a legendary brand that will strengthen our ability to offer more diverse fastening solutions to our customers and help us serve the many end-users who have relied on Hartco products for over 45 years.

When you are ready to discuss state-of-the-art fastening technology and competitive pricing with THE industry leader, simply contact our headquarters or visit our website to find an Encore Hartco fastening solutions expert near you.

Encore Hartco,
the ones "innovating legendary products" every day!
